

FAMILY HONOUR & SHAME - DEFENDING A LIE WON'T MAKE IT STOP. OVER 90% OF ABUSE IS CARRIED OUT BY SOMEONE YOU KNOW OR KNOWN TO THE FAMILY

The thought that someone you know or love has sexually abused a child, or may be abusing a child in your family is one of the hardest things to face. But it is better to talk over the situation with someone than to discover that your silence allowed the abuse to continue. If you suspect that someone you know may be sexually abusing a child, you must contact the police or speak confidentially to someone on the NSPCC Helpline.
